

January 29, 2007

H.Res. 82 - Commending the University of Louisville Cardinals football team for their victory in the 2007 Orange Bowl

Floor Situation

H.Res. 82 is being considered on the floor under suspension of the rules and will require a two-thirds majority vote for passage. This legislation was introduced by Representative John Yarmuth (D-KY) on January 19, 2007, and has not been considered by any committee.

H.Res. 82 is expected to be considered on January 29, 2007.

Summary

H.Res. 82 resolves that the House of Representatives (1) commends the University of Louisville Cardinals football team for their victory in the 2007 Orange Bowl, (2) recognizes the achievements of the players, Coach Bobby Petrino and his staff, Director of Athletics Tom Jurich, and President James Ramsey at the University of Louisville for the hard work and dedication that led to the Cardinals Orange Bowl victory, and (3) directs the Clerk of the House of Representatives to transmit a copy of this resolution to the director of athletics at the University of Louisville for appropriate display.

Background

On January 2, 2007, the University of Louisville Cardinals football team defeated the Wake Forest Demon Deacons 24-13 at Dolphin Stadium in Miami, Florida, to win the Orange Bowl.

The Cardinals victory marked the climax of a 12-1 season, which yielded the most wins in the program's history, a Big East Championship, and the school's first Bowl Championship Series victory.

Staff Contact:

For questions or further information contact Chris Vieson at (202) 226-2302.